Contents

Volume 44 Issue 1 | BMJ SRH January 2018

Highlights from this issue
1 In this issue

Editorials
3 Introducing BMJ Sexual & Reproductive Health: an international voice for sexual and reproductive health and wellbeing
S Goldbeck-Wood

5 Conscientious objection in sexual and reproductive health – a guideline that respects diverse views but emphasises patients’ rights
A Kasirwal, J Hatfield

Review
7 Contraception for adolescents with disabilities: taking control of periods, cycles and conditions
J Dickson, A Thwaites, I Bacon

Commentaries
13 A patient’s mother’s perspective. Early puberty – questions answered and an ongoing relationship established
Anonymous

14 Improving access to specialist care for adolescent girls with disabilities
G Perina, N Carson-Solfer

Research
16 Where do women and men in Britain obtain contraception? Findings from the third National Survey of Sexual Attitudes and Lifestyles (Nat3-3)
R S French, R Garsy, K Jones, A Claisse, C H Merzer, J Davis, W Macalwad, M Palmer, A M Johnson, K Wellings

27 Social media and the intrauterine device: a YouTube content analysis
B T Nguyen, A J Allen

32 Frequency of 6-week follow-up appointment scheduling after intrauterine device insertion
A Bernard, C I Satterwhite, M Rady

36 Counselling to include tailored use of combined oral contraception in clinical practice: an evaluation
H Abontumwe, K M Rank, N Brima, F McGregor, J Stephenson

42 Factors associated with condom use among men and women living with HIV in L Livingston, Malawi: a cross-sectional study
I Haddad, J H Tang, J Kashiw, W Ng’ambo, H Tizya, B Samala, J Choweke, T Choweza, M C Hosenipper, E Laboth, D J Janieson, S Phiri

54 Comparison of two low-sensitivity urine pregnancy tests for confirming the success of early medical abortion
S L Millar, S T Cameron

Better way of working
58 The evolution of a ‘one-stop’ outpatient manual vacuum aspiration service for termination of pregnancy
J Specchi, S Robson

61 Increasing access to contraceptive implants in the postnatal period via a home insertion service by community midwives
L Crew, A Craig, L Scott, S T Cameron, F Lebha

Person in practice
65 Going slow
A Berger

Letters to the editor
66 Postnatal contraception discontinuation: different methods, same problem
M Singanap-Madiki, N Dobole-Yontu, C J Hofmeyr, T A Lawn

67 Use and opinions of contraceptive services: survey of socially disadvantaged young adults
K Sundaram, P Oofolekshen, M More

68 Comment on ‘Safety issue with TT380 Slimline intrauterine contraceptive device’
D Okoro

68 Safety issue with TT380 Slimline intrauterine contraceptive device: response to Karen Treviannard and Colin Parker
M Pillar

69 Follow-up response by author of letter on ‘Safety issue with TT380 Slimline intrauterine device’
K R Treviannard

70 Device manufacturer’s response to letters regarding ‘Safety issue with TT380 Slimline intrauterine device’
C D Lafort

70 Infection 10 months after insertion of Nexplanon implant
J Richold

71 Two women with extended use of contraceptive implants
J Bentley

71 Comment on ‘End of the road for Essure??’
S Das, W C Yung, A Goud

Venus
74 Venus